1. Your bed, the man - ger in a sta - ble:
2. Oh how we wai - ted for your co - ming:
3. So now the sha - dow has been lif - ted,
4. You came to earth a help - less ba - by
5. And so our joy is e - ver - las - ting
6. Let this com - mu - nion tru - ly change us;

the trough from where the beasts would eat. See how re - dee - ming love to set your peo - ple free. Since the ful - fil - ling things pre - fi - gured long a - go. Like the though you are Lord of all the u - ni - verse. Now in for our Mes - si - ah, you are here with us. All the a taste of hea - v'nly glo - ry yet to come. Awe and low - ly is the place where love was born to us:

 dawn of time we thir - sted for your birth, O Lord:
 man - na from the hea - vens you have come to us:
 hu - mble bread, to fill our hearts, you come to us:
 trea - sures of this world are no - thing next to you:
 won - der in the face of God who lives wi - thin;

born to feed our hun - ger. O
 God in flesh a - mong us.
 God who feeds our need.
 Hea - ler of the soul.
 Come to fill our lo - nging.
 come, let us a - dore.

CHORUS

come let us a - dore Him, O come let us a - dore Him, O come let us a - dore Him, Christ the Lord.
