

Lord Of Creation

SLANE (10.10.10.10)

Jack Copley Winslow

Irish Traditional

1. Lord of cre - a - tion, to — You be all praise!
2. Lord of all — po - wer, I — give You my will,
3. Lord of all — wis - dom, I — give you my mind,
4. Lord of all — boun - ty, I — give you my heart;
5. Lord of all — be - ing, I — give You my all;

5

Most — might - y Your work - ing, most won - drous Your ways!
in — joy - ful o - be - dience Your tasks to fil - fil.
rich — truth that sur - pas - ses man's know - ledge to find.
I — praise and a - dore You for all You im - part;
if — e'er I dis - own You, I stum - ble and fall;

9

Your glo - ry — and — might are be - yond us to tell,
Your bon - dage — is — free - dom, Your ser - vice is song;
What eye has — not — seen and what ear has not heard
Your love to — in — spire me, Your oun - sel to guide, but, sworn in — glad — ser - vice Your word to o - bey,

13

and yet in the heart of the — hum - ble You dwell.
and, held in Your keep - ing, my — weak - ness is strong.
is taught by Your Sp - rit and — shines from Your Word.
Your pre - sence to cheer me, what - ev - er be - tide.
I walk in Your free - dom to the end of the way.