Notes

This octavo is part of a larger collection called Revival, a series of traditional hymn arrangements for contemporary ensembles intended to lead and inspire the singing of the liturgical assembly. Each hymn in the collection is arranged for SAB voices with an optional alternate harmonization of the accompaniment and a soprano descant for the final stanza; however, the final stanza also appears in the SAB texture to accommodate occasions when rehearsal time is limited or simplicity desired. The optional instrument parts can enhance these arrangements in fresh ways, particularly on feasts and special occasions. When these are used, the pianist may wish to simplify the piano parts to leave space for these instruments to shine, particularly on introductions and interludes.

There are, of course, multiple variations of familiar hymn texts (even within a single Christian denomination) based on a range of theological commitments and traditions. For the sake of simplicity, I have used the texts most common in the primary hymnals of the publisher of this collection. However, I encourage leaders to edit the language in these editions to agree with the version most familiar to the assembly.
